WHY GlobalIntegral

Constituting the missionary dimension of the synodal church, the New Evangelization advocates an inculturation which incorporates the fusion of temporality, historicity and contextuality.

Encouraged by the Popes, the New Evangelization for the third millennium is now structured to be present and grow effectively on the five continents of the world but the task to be accomplished remains immense.

There is a deep coherence signified by the continuity of magisterial teaching and by unified pastoral theology towards the concept of New Evangelization, which is the pastoral application of the VATICAN II ecumenical Council.

Consequently of this observation, engaged in the contemporary world and the e-culture, GlobalIntegral presents varied contributing services in all forms of communication relating to the theme of the New Evangelization to allow its final amplification.
